

LEGO® SERIOUS PLAY® Workshop Series: Playfulizing your Design Thinking process through “Purposeful Play”

CONNECTION TECHNOLOGY 裝備未來
FUTURE SKILLS

The world is changing fast. The rules have changed. Your products and services now require a design thinking approach to stay relevant.

“Almost all creativity involves purposeful play” Abraham Maslow said. In this workshop, you will experience the major procedures of the Design Thinking Process, but in a playful way.

If you are a newbie in Design Thinking, you will understand what Design Thinking is, and experience how purposeful play with LEGO® bricks can help you to redeem your creative confidence.

If you are already an expert in Design Thinking, you will learn how to tweak the Design Thinking process with the LEGO® SERIOUS PLAY® method in order to bring a more impactful outcome for the challenge, or a better collaboration in your team.
