

Play 4 Performance Team-based Candle Making Workshop

About the workshop:

A team of staff members split the work to learn and make a complicated design candle, which requires different skill sets e.g. active listening, leadership, effective communication and collaboration from members.

Why candle?

Aroma candles have been proven to lift mood, reduce stress and increase working capacity.

It is now a chance for your hard working colleagues to try something new, get creative, and have fun with the team!

Benefits:

✓ Break the monotony

- Able to unwind and relax as candle making is a form of therapy

✓ Converse and collaborate

- A comfortable platform for colleagues to open up and talk
